Item B: Parks & Recreation reported

Item C: VFD reported the bunker gear is starting to come in.

IX. Old Business: Discussion

Item A: Discussion only: Streets for repair

Mayor Ehmann stated most of the streets have been done over the past ten years. Live Oak needs work. The County does the base work and their contractor does the two course overlay. Discussion occurred concerning Bayshore, Seagull, Woodcrest, drainage needs and surveys of the streets. Areas discussed included Bayshore, N Sandpiper and Woodcrest and Live Oak. Mayor Ehmann stated she will have Commissioner Gillespie look at the areas and get a price for the work. Daniel Gentry asked for them to be more aware of streets they will be driving on so the equipment does not tear up the streets. Alderman Wilder stated another vehicle ran into the canal, she asked if rumble strips could be looked into or flashers on the signs. The owner of the property put up reflective posts.

X. New Business: Discussion and Possible Action

Item A: Approve/Disapprove Resolution Suspending the CenterPoint GRIP Rate

Mayor Ehmann stated this is an annual resolution. Alderman Daley made the motion to approve the Resolution Suspending the CenterPoint GRIP Rate. Alderman Wilder seconded the motion. The motion passed unanimously.

March 17, 2020

Item B: Discussion only: permit fee schedule

Mayor Ehmann asked Council to review the current permit schedule and see what changes may be needed to include requiring a WPI-8 and the flood elevation certificate

XI. Reports/Announcements
